J-1 Visa - Foreign Residency Requirement.

The "J" visa is for educational and cultural exchange programs designated by the U.S. Department of State. The "J" exchange visitor program is designed to promote the interchange of persons, knowledge, and skills in the fields of education, arts, and sciences. All "J" exchange visitors who participate in programs that are financed in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by an agency of the U.S. Government or by the exchange visitor's government, are subject to the Foreign Residency Requirement (two year home residency requirement). All Fulbright grantees are expected to return to their home countries for at least two years at the conclusion of their grant, in compliance with J-visa requirements.

Please know that by submitting this Cover Sheet to the Danish-American Fulbright Commission for Educational Exchange you certify that to the best of your knowledge, the information provided in all parts of the application is accurate and complete. You understand that final approval of your application is dependent upon your eligibility for a visa to the United States. Please be informed that all information submitted as part of this application will be reviewed by the Danish-American Fulbright Commission for Educational Exchange and its Board of Directors as part of the selection process; and that the information will be forwarded to the Institute of International Exchange (IIE)/ Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES), The Fulbright Scholarship Board, and the U.S. Department of State for final approval.
